Erected by the Germans after the annexation of Sudetenland, the building originally served as a customs house on the border between the Reich and the remainder of the Czechoslovak Republic. Upon the arrival of the US Army it was adopted as an Officers' Club. Many fixtures and fittings installed there, such as the lights or the original windows and doors, are still in their authentic state.

GPS: N49°44.621' E13°22.491'

The name of the restaurant (English: Venerated Camel) reflects the appearance of a camel in the City's coat of arms. The actual camel was originally received by the Hussites from the Khan of Crimea for their military assistance in Poland. It was brought back to Bohemia and kept in the Hussites' camp during their unsuccessful siege of Pilsen in 1433. In well-carried-out counter attack, the citizens of Pilsen were able to capture the venerated camel and bring it back inside the City. This event had a great impact on the morale of the besieging army, and eventually contributed to the failure of the siege.

Opening Hours: 11.00 to 24.00

The PUB II

GPS: N49°44.914' E13°22.724'

Opened on 12 August 2005, the PUB Plzeň is a next-generation bar with a system of unique self-service taps in each table, and more. The amount of beer consumed at each table is projected on a screen, making it easy for your competitive side to take over. The beer served here is non-pasteurized, delivered into the pub and served from bax-in-box containers to prevent any contact between the beer and the pressurized gas.
